

From a Georgian Family Garden to a 20th Century Environmental Artwork

Free presentation, and a chance to enjoy a spring evening in the gardens

Wednesday 29 April 2026, from 5:30pm (talk 6:15pm)

Gardens and Auditorium, The Storey,
Meeting House Lane, Lancaster, LA1 1TH

Free, all welcome

BOOK HERE

Join us for a brand new presentation on the history of the Storey Gardens, with award-winning Blue Badge Tourist Guide and owner of Lancaster Walks, Talks & Tours, Gregory Wright. Gregory will trace the gardens' history from early roots, to the site of a unique artwork by international artist, Mark Dion.

Find out more and book now at www.trybooking.com/uk/GBMT

Love the Storey Gardens? You can donate here now to support more free Friends of the Storey Gardens events, plus restoration of artwork, paths and gardens for everyone to enjoy.

Why not become a Friend, or even volunteer with us? It's free. Find out more here.

5:30pm

Enjoy the gardens, and meet our talented volunteer gardeners. Why not take a look at Mark Dion's The Tasting Garden artwork?

Drinks/snacks are available from The Storey's Printroom Café & Bar to take in to the talk.

6:00pm

Friends of the Storey Gardens AGM (all welcome, but only members may vote).

6:15pm

Gregory Wright presentation with Q&A.

7:30pm

Close – just in time to enjoy The Storey Quiz Night!

